

Frederik Villmow (*1993) is a German jazz-drummer living in Trondheim, Norway. He earned a bachelor degree from the prestigious Jazzlinja NTNU in Trondheim and has gained a broad experience as a musician.

In september 2019 he released his debut recording as a bandleader „Live in Copenhagen“ with his quartet featuring one of Denmark's leading jazz musicians, saxophonist Tomas Franck.

During the years, Frederik Villmow has collaborated with musicians like Tomas Franck, Carl Winther, Mats Holmquist, John Pål Inderberg, Alan Skidmore and Chris Potter.

press quotes

„Frederik Villmow made an impressive debut that makes you want more.

His band, a top-class international ensemble, plays Straight-ahead jazz that can be classified as Post-bop, at its finest.“

(Hans-Bernd Kittlaus, Jazzpodium, GER)

"With this authentic vision, drummer Frederik Villmow is heading towards a serious future, with probably many timeless albums and concerts."

(Cyriel Pluimakers, Jazzenzo Magazine, NL)

more info: www.frederikvillmow.com