

Frederik Villmow (*1993) is a German jazz-drummer and composer based in Oslo, Norway. He earned a Master's degree from the prestigious Jazzlinja NTNU in Trondheim and has worked with a variety of musicians as Tomas Franck, Carl Winther, Vignleik Storaas, Bendik Hofseth, Bjørn Vidar Solli, John Pål Inderberg, Will Vinson, Lage Lund and Chris Potter. In september 2019 he released his debut recording as a leader entitled 'Frederik Villmow Quartet feat. Tomas Franck - Live in Copenhagen' which received great critics from the International press. Followed up by his second release 'Frederik Villmow Trio - Motion', described as „one of the most beautiful piano trio recordings in a long time“ (Jan Granlie, SWE) Frederik Villmow is endorsed by Canopus Drums.

press quotes:

„Frederik Villmow made an impressive debut that makes you want more. His band, a top-class international ensemble, plays Straight-ahead jazz at its finest.“
(Hans-Bernd Kittlaus, Jazzpodium, GER)

"With this authentic vision, drummer Frederik Villmow is heading towards a serious future, with probably many timeless albums and concerts."
(Cyriel Pluimakers, Jazzenzo Magazine, NL)

more information: www.frederikvillmow.com

